

SOUTHWESTERN ASSOCIATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I                      *NAME

The name of this association shall be the Southwestern Association of Criminal Justice, hereafter referred to as the “Association.”

ARTICLE II                      *OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Association shall be:

- (1) To provide communication among individual members, among other organizations and associations of higher education, and among components and agencies of the criminal justice system;
- (2) To promote a high standard of education in the administration of justice;
- (3) To encourage progress in criminal justice planning and research.

ARTICLE III                      *MEMBERSHIP

Section 1                      Regular membership shall be open to those employed in the field of criminal justice education or professionals in the field of criminal justice who have an interest in criminal justice education.

Section 2                      Student membership shall be open to students studying and/or researching criminal justice at an accredited educational institution.

Section 3                      An eligible person interested in election to membership in the Association will submit a completed written application on a form adopted by the Officers and tender payment of dues set at the time of application to the Treasurer.

Section 4                      To maintain good standing, members must have paid annual dues and their membership must not have otherwise been suspended or terminated.

Section 5                      Any member one year in arrears for dues after the annual meeting shall have their membership terminated; reinstatement shall be according to policy established by the Officers.

Section 6                      Whenever an issue concerning any application of any person arises, that application and any other pertinent information shall be forwarded by the Secretary to all Officers for action, subject to further review or direction by the membership of the Association. Any membership may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the Officers and may be terminated by two-thirds vote of the regular members present and voting at an Annual or Special Meeting. Such suspensions or terminations shall be based on consideration of the Association’s stated Objectives (as noted in Article II) and undertaken in accordance with the procedures outlined under Rule 60 in Roberts’ Rules of Order Newly Revised.

Section 7 Only regular members in good standing shall be allowed to vote.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS
